ORDER:

Consequent on reorganization of Andhra Pradesh and as per the recommendations of the Sectoral committee on Training Institutions and centers under “schedule X e” and as per the instructions of the Government vide Memos, 5th & 6th read above the Mission Director, MEPMA has submitted proposals vide reference 11th read above for establishment of a new society for the State of Telangana duly retaining the existing society for the State of Andhra Pradesh with the approval of Governing Body as was done in respect of A.P. vide G.O. 1st read above. In her proposal the Mission Director also stated that a new Society was registered under A.P. Societies Registration Act, 2001 for the State of Telangana with registration number 304 of 2014 and also requested for orders on bifurcation of sanctioned posts (in the ratio of 58:42), assets (in the ratio of 58:42), files, balance funds and liabilities (in the ratio of 58.32 : 41.68) and to apportion available Head Office space (in the ratio of 58:42) between the two States.

2. After careful examination of the proposals of the Mission Director, MEPMA vide ref 11th read above, the Government has decided for bifurcation of the sanctioned posts (in the ratio of 58:42) as shown in the annexure, assets (in the ratio of 58:42), files, balance funds and liabilities (in the ratio of 58.32 : 41.68) and to apportion available Head Office space (in the ration of 58:42) between both the successor States of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana as proposed vide references 9th and 10th read above and also for establishment of separate Society for Telangana State as was done in respect of Andhra Pradesh vide G.O. 1st and 2nd read above to achieve the similar objectives duly retaining the existing Society for the State of Andhra Pradesh. The strategy, aims and objectives and composition of the new society are as follows.

a. The Strategy broadly includes the following elements:

- Building organizations of the poor as an essential prerequisite for poverty alleviation. Through these organizations, the poor can save and invest efficiently.
- Empowerment of the poor as the means to poverty eradication. Through empowerment, the poor can also assert the right to resources intended for them and enhance their dignity and self-respect.
- The need for sensitive support mechanism to catalyze the process of Social mobilization.
- Providing required financial inputs through Interest free Bank linkages, which will promote income generation and livelihood promotion to all family members.
- Participatory monitoring and evaluation is built into the process so that self-corrective action can take place as the process evolves.

b. The objectives of MEPMA

- Develop a strategy for elimination of poverty in urban areas
- Profiling the poor in urban areas using participatory methodologies
- Organize them into Self Help Groups (SHGs)
- Promote and nurture federations of Self Help Groups.
- Organize continuous capacity building programme for staff and Self Help Groups
- Facilitate the groups to access bank linkages.
- Take up skill development programme for self employment and wage employment
- Facilitate pro-poor budgeting in Urban Local Bodies (ULBs)
- Address vulnerabilities like disability / old age / adolescent girls / child labour etc.
- Provide improved access to quality civic services to the poor including housing, health and education to children
- Take up any program that empowers the poor and/or addresses the various issues related to Poverty Elimination and Human Development
- Implement any programme formulated by Government of India or Government of AP for community development, Institutional Building and Capacity enhancement.
- Implement special schemes related to street vendors, domestic workers, shelters to homeless and Girl Child Protection Scheme.
- Access funds from Central & State Government, Financial Institutions and other Agencies.
